SPRIGHTLY SPRING STYLES FOR MEN

Simplicity and Conservativeness Seem Predominant.

The designers of mens clothing seem to have recovered from their debauch of extreme ornamentation in the styling of men's clothes. The reaction has set in. Last spring was the first after the close of the war—the first opportunity that designers had had for two years to exercise their designing originality unencumbered by the restrictions of the government economy board which enforced decrees of strict simplicity in fashioning. It was natural when the ban had been lifted and all restraint removed that the designers should burst forth with renewed vigor to show the novelty ideas which they had stored away during the simplicity period.

This condition resulted in a riot of fanciful conceptions—each designer vieing with his brother to launch a more extreme or unique conception many times regardless of good taste or the tendencies of American ideas for distinctive refinement.

Young men wore these styles simply because they seemed to be the vogue but accepted them with a noticeable reluctance, and, as the year progressed, there was an obvious recession to the less ornate designs.

Designers are quick to sense the acceptance or rejection of their ideas and mens styles cannot be forced to the degree that is possible with womens modes, so that this spring you will note a new aspect in the fashioning that is more in accord with refined American tastes.

Full chested coats with English shoulders, high line waists, slightly longer skirts to the coat and a more perceptible flare, are the outstanding features of the young mens models.

You'll see gradual retirement of belted effects, and not nearly so many pleat and panel effects as were shown in last spring or last fall lines. These novelty details, however, will appear again in the mid-summer models of outing suits.

There are no particular lines of patterns prescribed as most fashionable, but small effects will be more noted than the larger plaids. Narrow stripes club checks, small mixtures, small overplaids and iridescents will be most popular.

The colors for the most part are in dark blues, dark greens, purples, myrtles, various shades of browns, and gray; olive greens and tans, with pin stripes and chalk stripes, also two-tone effects.

The Town's on Dress Parade

You-All Are Welcome.

Take it from me. This is to be some pa-a-rade.

Our old friend P. T. thought he had a monoply on that parade stuff but if he could give Maryville's shopping circuit the double-O next Monday night his poor old, wabbly shade would just pulverize with chagrin and poof—the horrid dust in one's eyes.

This is Maryville's first fashion show and it isn't based on a mercantile estimate. No merchant has an x-ray turned on your pocket book. You can leave your spare change at home in the tea pot on the cupboard shelf and come along.

There is nothing for you to do but gasp and Oh! and Ah.

Then look.

Of course if you insist on buying a baby bonnet or a new tractor or a $109 sport coat or a silk shirt next day, your money will receive the customary esteem, thank you, call again.

The Fashion Show is a co-operative pre-Easter fashion event given by the merchants of the city, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the Maryville Ad club. It is an exposition of all the merchandising firms of the city for the pleasure of Nodaway county.

The showing of spring stocks will include everything from the most gorgeous rainment for the most autocratic dame down to the latest shape in pie tins, from hair nets to farm implements, from pins to limousines. And the most skeptical will say that the Maryville merchants can produce the goods.

Sh, now, walk on your toes, the goblins will "git" me if I tell out loud. But there is to be a heap more doing Monday night than just to walk up and down the street and hear the band play "So Long Mary, How d' you like my show."

This ev-e-nt is to be a real fashion show and there is to be some surprises the like of which—curtain down.

Nobody tells what they're going to have to eat when they have a real party, anyhow.

And this is the merchants debut party for 1920.

Mr. Merchant has often entertained you. When Maryville is visited by some celebrity, the merchant loans his car and shows him the town. When Maryville needs a new road drag, friend merchant checks on his bank account. When some big event is desired for the pleasure of the town folk Mr. Merchant writes another check. When there is some new city improvement needed the merchant does likewise again. He leads the mountain to the Maryville Mahomets whenever the call is sent out.

When that mountain is moved, he is ready for the next, chin up check book ready.

Sometimes all he gets in return is a floor covered with peanut shells and he has to get down an hour earlier in the morning to aid the janitor in scraping the gum wads from in under the edges of the show cases.

And the next day when the show is all over Mrs. Maryville sometimes goes to the city and she doesn't leave her spare change at home in the old tea pot when she starts.

But he comes up smiling and invites you to his fashion show.

Be your own R. S. V. P. Monday night.

MARY O'MARYYILLE GOES SHOPPING

Now Mary was to entertain her bridge club next day, and what should she do for a winner's favor. The usual line wouldn't do, she must have something new, oh dear me. Brilliant idea, she just went down to a shop where there were displayed everything imaginable from a cake patter (absolutely guaranteed by a dear old granny) hot dish holders, incense burners, fancy fly swatters, not that a fly would give a hang about being bit with decorations, but it was so original and the goodness knows what all there was, done up in fancy boxes any where from 50 cents to $1.

Well, that just decided Mary in going on a tour and finding some more things. While she was looking, she saw the niftiest contraption, a Pyralin ivory box, to put on the dresser to hold friend husband's little belongings like collar buttons and cuff links. It cost $4 but wouldn't any self respecting wife pay $4 rather than spend half her time looking under the dresser for said collar buttons.

Then at another shop, she found a complete line of little folks togs and Mary has a niece whom she adores so she looked and looked at all the crisp ginghams, the dainty chambrays the practical percales in dresses and romper suits that only cost $2 to $2.50.

Most the prettiest thing she saw was some finely cut beads in long strands, very tony too, which would look marvelous with one of those new Pekin blue voiles. These run from $3 to $7 and Mary selected the medium $4 and all her friends admired her selection immensely.

But where she lost all her adjectives and her money was over the pretty new cretonnes and marquisettes and draperies. One store had the loveliest line in the most exquisite shades of old rose, French blue and dull greens ranging in prices from 50 cents to $1 per yard. Mary just shut her eyes and pictured a boudoir with hangings and straightway purchased some to be made up for her sister, Elizabeth, a spring bride to be.

Then Mary went home and poured into friend husband's ears this tale. And what do you think he said "How much do you want?"

Just join the crowd Monday night and you will see all that Mary saw.

Goodbye, "Kewtie Garages."

Dame Fashion is heartless in discarding beloved styles of hairdressing. Bobs over the ears are, if not literally in the discard, not seen in Fashion's circles. Milady's coiffure is high, in conventional ripples, without pin or coil in evidence.

Parasols of Many Types.

With the spring come parasols. Ivory tips, ringed ends, black and white stripes, and Japanese straight ribs are among the styles to be seen in Maryville.

Ripe Red Cherries.

Dangling, bobbing, ripe red cherries
Glisten on my lady's hat.
With a sparkling eye beneath them—
Rich, red cherries, bright and fat.

Organdie Flowers in Use.

Roses and garlands of flowers fashioned of organdie of different hues are the newest trimmings for the organdie frock.

Knickers Instead of Skirts.

Knickers are shown in large variety, as the abbreviated skirts of the season bid fair to relegate the petticoat to antiquity.

Bobbed Hair Out of Style.

Bobbed hair is actually going out of style. Not even the most Bohemian now condescend to appear in childish disarray.

Satin Hats Trimmed in Bows.

Satin hats in simple shapes are to be worn this year trimmed in bows, tufts of plumes, or embroidery.

Now the Linen Handkerchief.

Silk handkerchiefs are passé. Linen ones, however, can be bought invaried shades of different colors so that Miss Fashionable may have a handkerchief to match her every dress and blouse.

To Keep Gloves in Place.

To enable the young woman who is wearing long gloves to keep them sliding down over her hands, smart jewelers provide slender silver bracelets which can be shoved high on the arms, thus keeping the gloves in place.

Latest Wrinkles in Dogs.

A long silvery chain, a bright ribbon bow and Fido's spring regalia is complete. Squinty shoe button eyes and wainty harmless bark put him in the best dog aristocracy. Miss Fashion may forget her vanity purse, but never her Fido. If the weather is a bit cold a silk sweater of tan or blue for street wear is just the thing.

Oxford No Sign of Spring.

How shall we know that it is spring
Unless we hear the robbins sign?
Styles are no longer any sign.
Oxfords are worn at Christmas time,
Hats of straw with flowers showy,
Dared December, bleak and snowy.
There's no in, nor out of season.
Vogue has her own exclusive season.

The Perplexing Problem

Among the things I cannot understand
Are the contradictions of Fashion Land.
I read my journals and fashion plate
In frantic search of the up-to-date.
I see hats this season are all very small—
Or broad merry-widows may be worn by us all!
A small one? A big one? I'll have to buy two.
What else could a proper, chic college girl do?
Thin blouses, I see, are again to be worn
With long tails upon them, or with the tails shorn.
Now which IS more smart? Now which IS the best
For one of good form who WOULD be well dressed?
The skirts will be narrow, will flare at the hips:
Dame Paris says "short," but New York says "mix."
Paris? New York? Which should dictate to me?
Ah me! What a trial this is growing to be!
I'll go fifty-fifty! For half of the week
I'll listen to Paris. Oui! Oui! but it's neat!
The last of the week, New York styles I will stress
And so solve this riddle of feminine dress!

—The Missourian, Columbia.

For the tailored suit, a woman must wear a trim sailor or a neat small hat in early spring.

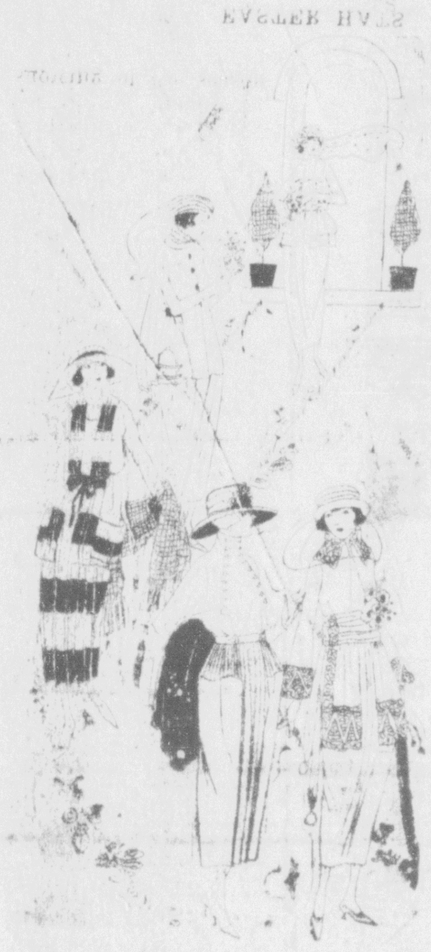
Spring Opening Exposition

Monday, March 22 to Saturday, March 27



BEGINNING Monday, March 22 and continuing throughout the entire week, Maryville will have a special Spring Opening event in which extra efforts are being made to have on display the most unusual collection of spring styles and seasonable merchandise ever displayed in this city.

In co-operating in this event we have made untiring efforts and have succeeded in collecting wonderful assortments of the smartest modes of the moment. In this assemblage of new Spring Styles are creations of the final dictates of Dame Fashion, first shown in their entirety for this Spring Opening Exposition.

SPRING SUITS.

The assortment of tailored suits for spring offers a wonderful variety of selection of the newest versions of the modes which will predominate during the spring season. Plain and fancy tailored, semi-fitted and belted models in the season's new colorings and weaves.

SMART DRESSES.

Afternoon and street dersses, evening, dinner and reception gowns in draped and straightline models. Plain Tunic and Bouffant Skirts. Redingote, surplice and Russian Blouse waists. Embroidered, Beaded and Braided. Tricolette, taffeta, tricotine, Georgette, crepe de chine, and faille in the new spring shades.

BLOUSES.

New becoming effects in sheer blouses for the spring wear. Georgette, crepe de chine and fine voiles in "V" shaped, round or oval necks, with short and long sleeves. Some in two-tone and pastel effects; others in embroidered and beaded styles. White, bisque and flesh in big assortment of styles and sizes.

STYLISH COATS.

The style expressions in the outer garments have taken newer form. Semi-fitted models, Polo coats in several lengths and plain tailored effects are predominating. An unusual assemblage will be on display for Spring Opening Week. Don't fail to see this showing of the season's best styles.

EASTER HATS.

Easter marks a date in the spring when most women and girls are disappointed if they are not permitted to display a new bonnet. And why shouldn't they have a new bonnet when it is the crowning point to the entire Spring outfit. Our new assortment which will be on display during this Opening Week includes the latest creations and adaptions from some of the foremost designers in this country.

FOOTWEAR.

Dame fashion was never so kind as this season in the creation of attractive footwear. Nifty pumps, eyelet ties, colonials, oxfords and boots in black and shades of brown. Both the dressy effects and those for street wear. Also an exceptional assortment of buckles for pumps or colonials.

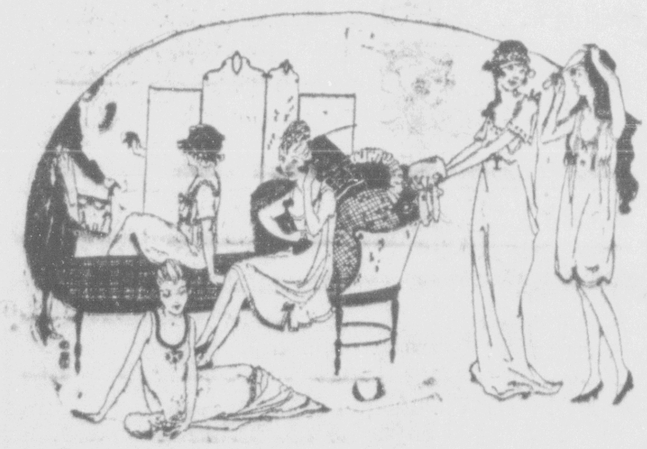
Hosiery in silk, lisle and cotton to meet every demand. Both black and colors in the new spring assortment in sizes and qualities to meet every individual need.

SILK UNDERWEAR.

Dainty silk crepe de chine, Georgette and Wash Satin gowns, teddy suits, camisoles and bloomers, fashioned as carefully as you would do the work yourself. Lace and ribbon trimmed, and embroidered effects in white and flesh color. Our new spring assortment is now on display for your inspection.

SPRING CORSETS.

By means of careful shaping and skilful boning, the Bon Ton, Royal Worcester and American Lady Corsets adapt the lines of the figure to the lines of the smart silhouette. Every woman knows that the best gown is only as good as the corset over which it is worn. And every woman will be glad to learn that our corset service makes the simplest gown smart, and the smartest gown smarter still. The new spring assortment now on display.



SPRING NECKWEAR.

Dainty creations of the finer materials that add a chic finish to your new costume are now on display in the west aisle. Collars in styles that will give that needed finishing touch to your spring coat or suit. Our new Easter assortment will be on display during the Spring Opening.

SPRING VEILS.

Veils will play a prominent part in the spring outfit. A comprehensive showing that fit over the hat and fall over the edge of the brim to veil the eyes and hang in long folds at the back and those that "snug in" on the little street hats. Also veilings by the yard in the chenille dotted and embroidered effects.

FABRIC FASHIONS

In addition to the exceptional assortments of ready-to-wear things that we have collected for the Spring Opening, we have on display the latest fashions in fabrics for those who wish to do their own sewing or have their garments made to their individual requirements. Also trimmings and accessories of the latest trend.

EASTER GLOVES.

No matter how neat and becoming your new spring outfit, it will be incomplete without a pair of our new spring gloves, either kid or silk. Black, gray, white, brown and navy.

CLUB WOMEN FOR CIVIC INTERESTS

RESUME OF WORK ACCOMPLISHED BY 20TH CENTURY CLUB

REPORTGIVEN YESTERDAY

Mrs. A. A. Brewer, President Outlines Past Work at Fourteenth Anniversary Meeting.

That club women in solidarity stand behind the best interests of their respective communities is a fact now accepted without equivocation by all people of the country.

Maryville has come to expect the support and in many cases the leadership of her club women in all those movements which stand for the good of town and community.

How the club women have fulfilled these expectations is a matter of record shown in the permenant institutions brought about through their efforts and the many good movements which they have sponsored.

A very brief resume of the civic and philanthropic work of the Twentieth Century club during the fourteen years of its existence was given yesterday afternoon by the club president, Mrs. Arthur Allen Brewer, at the anniversary meeting held at the Elks club.

This resume is as follows:

One of the first philanthropies of the club was the raising of a fund to sustain, at the hospital, Mrs. Thomas a destitute old gentlewoman of Maryville, to bury her after her death.

The remainder of the fund was used to incorporate a Humane Society. Thru this means, the club secured the Ensign drinking fountain which was installed July, 1910, at the intersection of 4th and Market street.

The club assisted in furnishing the Elk tea rooms.

$10.00 was given toward theHospital elevator fund.

$50.00 was given the unfortunate widow of the Rev. Hathaway.

Sanitary drinking cups were installed in the ward schools.

Flower seeds were distributed and prizes offered for the most beautiful flower beds.

Mrs. Baxter, state chairman of civics was brought here and spoke at the Methodist church to a packed house. As a result Maryville had her first Tin Can Day, and has enjoyed an annual clean up week ever since.

Miss Helen Keller, who with her energy, enthusiasm, and unquenchable spirit puts to shame our superior advantages of the senses, was brought here and demonstrated the wonders to be accomplished through education.

Maryville Federated clubs entertained the State board and the district meeting in 1915, which has been referred to many times in subsequent district meetings as one of the most successful ever held.

$25.00 was donated to the Charity board in 1915.

The ladies chorus gave a successful concert in 1916.

The Twentieth Century club was instrumental in forming the city federation of clubs which later was merged into the present council of clubs.

As a member of the city federation, they assisted in furnishing and maintaining the rest rooms, which have been such a blessing to the country woman around Maryville.

Upon the declaration of war by our country, our women turned the greater part of their attention to war work, and many of the leaders in the war work were members of the Twentieth Century club.

Before our country entered the war, the club had authorized one of her members to organize a surgical dressings unit in Maryville and had given her $25.00 to help start the good work Later on, when the Red Cross took up the work, there were 325 women organized and trained for the work.

$300.00 was invested in Liberty bond

$25.00 was given to the Red Cross $25.00 to the Y. M. C. A., $25.00, later on, to the United War Workers fund.

$10.00 was given to our food demonstrator to assist in starting the food demonstration work in the Elks kitchens

$50.00 was invested in war savings stamps.

$10.00 was donated to local charity.

Our club endorsed the Childrens code and sent telegrams to our representatives and senator at Jefferson City, asking him to vote for the bills. The Missouri Womans Federation of clubs has been given much of the credit for the passage of these splendid educational bills.

This fall, the club held a public meeting on Good Citizenship to interest the women of the county in the new citizenship which is now theirs.

$100 scholarship in the Phoebe Ess Educational fund for girls has been raised the last two years and named for the Twentieth Century club.

JUDGE MAYER IN THE GOVERNOR RACE

IS FIFTH CANDIDATE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION

IS HEARTILY INDORSED

Entered Race After Much Persuasion, Makes Statement of Policy in Connection With Announcement.

Judge Charles H. Mayer of St. Joseph, former state senator announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor yesterday. He is the fifth candidate for the Democratic nomination.

Judge Mayer has been heartily indorsed by the Democrats not only of northwest Missouri but in many other parts of the state. It was after some persuasion that he was induced to become a candidate.

Judge Mayer made the following statement yesterday in connection with his announcement:

I did not decide to enter the race for the Democratic nomination for govern or until I felt assured of the enthusiastic and practically unanimous support of the section of the state in which I live, and not until I had been urged to run by active Democrats in various parts of the state.

So far as national issues are concerned, my platform will be written by the Democratic convention at San Francisco.

The Democrats of Missouri, under the law, will hold a convention at Jefferson City in August for the sole purpose of drafting a party platform and, being a Democrat, I expect to stand on that platform.

Of course, I assume that the state platform, will pledge its candidates to an eforcement of the law, including the Eighteenth amendment to the Constitution, and the acts passed for its enforcement.

Personally, I shall urge the adoption of a platform pledging the party to absolutely separate the sources of taxation for local purposes from the sources of taxation for state purposes.

Our cities and our populous counties containing large industrial centers necessarily maintain expensive local governments. They have and wish to main tain the highest standards in their public schools. If, under the present system, they increase their assessments so as to raise more revenue for local expenses, they must pay more than their share of the burdens of state government, because the tax levy for local purposes are both based upon the same assessed valuation. On the other hand, there are many agricultural counties in Missouri, which, comparatively speaking have inexpensive local governments. Their county courts meet only a few days in the year, they costs, almshouses, police and fire departments, their officers to a large extent, are paid in fees so that for their own use such counties need little revenue.

If the assessments were to be actually equalized, so that the cities and the populous counties would not be required to pay an unfair proportion toward maintaining the state government, then the agricultural counties would be compelled to raise more money than they need to pay for their local government. Other states, such as New York, have met this problem by separating the source of revenue for local purposes, and I know that Missouri can do the same thing, thus bringing about an equitable adjustment of our taxation, and thereby avoiding the conflict heretofore existing between the great agricultural parts of Missouri and the great industrial parts of Missouri; thus, too, will the state, without any injustice be able to properly maintain the state eleemosynary and educational intitutions and each locality, without imposing an unfair burden upon itself, can raise the money to properly care for its public schools and other local institutions.

The educational and eleemonsynary institutions of this state must be maintained at the highest standard. We owe it to our unfortunate fellow citizens for whom the eleemosynary institutions are provided, to see that those institutions are properly maintained, whatever may be the cost. We owe it to the rising generation, to the state itself, to maintain our educational institutions and we cannot propertly maintain them unless teachers are paid such salaries as will induce those already engaged in the profession to remain, and as will cause the younger men and women to prepare for and adopt the profession.

COLLEGE AUDITORIUM TO BE REMODELED THIS SPRING

Stage to be Rebuilt, Motion Picture Machine and Other Equipment to be Added.

The auditorium of the Northwest State Teachers college, by the opening of the summer term, will probably be the most artistic, best equipped assembly room of its kind in the country The room is to be redecorated in buff and green. The windows and shades are to be arranged in such a way that the room in daylight can be darkened in almost a moment, so that pictures may be shown at any time.

In the balcony at the rear, a motion picture machine is to be installed. Mr. Wilson is trying to obtain for this the best that can be found. It is to a machine which can be used for cards and slides as well as for motion pictures. This will make it possible for the machine to be utilized by many different groups and classes in a variety of ways.

The stage, however, is the most attractive part of the room. A built in indoor scene—a fire place in the middle with French doors at each side of it, and two side entrances at the right and two at the left of the stage—all decorated in buff and green, makes it as both Miss Dow and Miss DeLuce expressed it, "the most attractive stage to be found." There will also be a more simple indoor scene and a garden scene. The stage is so arranged that these may be placed immediately in front of the permanent scene. The sides and ceiling of the stage are so built that side lights and top light may be used as well as foot lights, making it possible to have the lighting effect whatever may be desired.

Green velvet curtains and draperies with golden cords, both on the stage and on the balcony will complete the artistic effect. On the draperies above the stage curtain will be embiazoned a large golden "M."

President Richardson is to be commended on the appearance of the room as a whole. Credit for the artistic effect is due Miss DeLuce, Miss Dow and Miss Winn for their plans and suggestions.—Green and White Courier.

DEBATES FEATURE COLLEGE SOCIETY PROGRAMS TODAY

St. Patrick's Program and Debate on Irish Political Problems Given by Eurekans

The weekly meetings of the State Teachers literary societies were held this afternoon at the college, the Excelsiors having a debate, the Eurekans a St. Patricks day program and the Philos holding a preliminary contest to select representatives in the annual spring contest.

The Excelsior debate was upon the subject "Resolved That Immigration Should be further Restricted", with the affirmative taken by Marshall Long, Ruth Foland and Ethel Sloan and the negative by Mary Croy Ruth Heck and Helen Tebow.

The Legend of St. Patrick was told in an essay by Mildred Eckert and Miss Blanche Alexander sang an Irish song for the opening half of the Eurekan program and a debate upon the subject, "Resolved That Ireland should be made Independent", was the concluding number. The negative side was taken by Lee Meek and John Phipps and the affirmative by Alice Peery and Ernest McDonald."

APPOINTS ROWLETT HEALTH OFFICER

MADE DEPUTY STATE COMMISSIONER FOR 3 YEAR TERM

SALARY IS CONDITIONAL

Takes Place of Former County Physician—Court Rejects Steel Bridge Span Bid.

Dr. H. S. Rowlett of this city was appointed deputy state health commissioner by the county court in session yesterday. The appointment is for a term of three years.

Dr. Rowlett will receive a salary of $500 a year for attending patients at the county farm and jail. In addition he will receive $5 for each quarantine case. Where no quarantine is necessary he will get $2 for each case. For school house inspection and camps he will get $2 for each one. He is to get $1 a mile one way for the above cases with the exception of attending to patients at the county farm and jail.

The legislature last year abolished the office county physician and in its stead created the office of deputy state health commissioner to work under the direction of the state board of health.

The court in session yesterday rejected the bids for a steel span as they were too high according to the estimate of the county highway engineer, George S. Miller. The court will call for new bids. The span is to be used on a bridge near O. F. Wilson farm near Burlington Junction.

The court ordered Ruth Huey be sent to State hospital No. 2 at St. Joseph as a county patient.

"UNCLE" THOMAS GRANT DIES AT HOME IN STANBERRY.

The funeral services for Thomas Grant, a well known citizen of Stanberry, who died last Saturday, were held Tuesday morning at St. Peter's church conducted by Rev. Graham. The body was buried in Mount Calvary cemetery at Stanberry.

Mr. Grant was a resident of this city for a number of years and has a wide acquaintance through Nodaway county. The following notice is taken from the Stanberry Herald:

Uncle Thomas Grant died Saturday night at his home in north Stanberry after a few weeks illness. Funeral was held Tuesday morning at St. Peters church by Rev. Graham and the burial at Mount Cavalry cemetery. The deceased was one of our best citizens and the family has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

SAFLEY BARN AND HOY HOME BURNED AT HOPKINS.

The home of Wm. Hoy, 8 miles south west of Hopkins, burned last Monday, very little of the household goods being saved, making the loss heavy as only $500 insurance was carried.

The same day, the big horse barn on the old Howard Hensley farm, 5 miles northeast of Hopkins burned, the fire being discovered about 2:30 in the afternoon and it was under such headway that it was impossible to save any of the contents. The farm is occupied by Alfred Safley and he lost a team of valuable mares that he had refused $600 for. He also lost 14 tons of hay, 150 bushels of corn, 100 bushels of oats, two sets of harness, wagon binder and other things. The barn was insured for $600 which does not cover the loss. The value estimated at $1300 with only $300 insurance, making his loss easily $1000

If it had not been for the assistance of neighbors, the home and most of the other buildings would have been destroyed and the Hensley and Safley families wish to thank all for the assistance rendered. Good neighbors, like good friends, are indispensible.—Hopkins Journal.

McCaffrey to Guilford.

Prosecuting Attorney Charles F McCaffrey went to Guilford today where he will represent the state in an assault case which was to come up before Justice William Davis. Mr. McCaffrey returned yesterday afternoon from Lamar, Colo., from a few days business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Anderson and son, Glen Jr., of Lincoln, Neb., arrived in Maryville Tuesday night for an extended visit with relatives.

DEMOCRATS TO FORM CLUB FOR JUDGE MAYER

MRS. F. H. METZLER TO HEAD LYCEUM CONCERT COMPANY

Contracts for Year's Tour Under the Redpath-Horner and Redpath-Vawter Bureaus.

Mrs. F. H. Metzler of this city will start the latter part of May on a concert tour as head of her own company of players known as the Geneva Adams Metzler company. The company has signed a full years contract with the Redpath-Horner bureau of Kansas City and the Redpath-Vawter bureau of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for both chautauqua and lyceum work.

Among the artists of the company are Miss Binning of Kansas City, violinist, and Miss Helen Allen of South Dakota, soprano soloist and character reader who are known to the friends of the Metzlers here as both young women spent several weeks last summer as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Metzler. One of the plays to be included in the repetoire o fthe company is that of "Mr. Sampson", a one act comedy which was presented under the direction of Mrs. Metzler at the program tea given yesterday afternoon by the Twentieth Century club. This is an English play used for the first time in this country and the exclusive working rights have been purchased by the Metzler company. Their list of plays will include ethical comedies, a number of translations from the classics suitable especially for college presentation and a list of plays in the lighter vein from which community selection can be made.

Mrs. Metzler has appeared before Maryville audiences on several occasions and her work has been highly praised and admired.

GERMAN COMMUNIST MOVEMENT SPREADS

NOSKE INAUGURATES MILITARY MEASURES AGAINST SPARTACIST.

LOCAL SOVIETS FORMED

Allies Will Not Advance Beyond Present Military Lines Unless Resumption of War is Threatened.

Paris Mar. 18.—Noske, minister of defense of the Ebert government, has gone to Berlin from Stuttgart to inaugurate military measures against the Spartacists, it is reported in Berlin today. In the absence of direct news from Berlin overnight, left the situation of obscurity following the resignations of Von Kapp, revolutionary chancellor and General Von Luettwiz, commander of the revolutionary troops.

According to reports the Spartacists are making desperate efforts to control the German capitol. Local Soviets re springing up through out the country. Orders have been given to call the general strike but how far this has been obeyed was unknown today

London, Mar. 18.—The Communists movement in Germany is spreading, according to advices from German sources today. The agricultural workers proclaiming Soviets in Mecklenburg, the Communists seized a number of estates. An Exchange Telegraph Amsterdam dispatch says rumors are current in Berlin today that Von Kapp has committed suicide.

Paris, Mar. 18.—The Allies reached a definite decision not to advance a single foot beyond the present military lines in Germany unless some new turn in German affairs threatens a resumption of war, it was learned from official circles today.

London, Mar. 18.—Fighting in the streets of Leipsiz has been continued since four o'clock yesterday afternoon, according to the general news dispatch here today. Barricades have been erected on the city's thoroughfares. Twenty were killed in an attack on the railway station. At Nurnberg the attack was repulsed. At Bostock seaport workers made a surprise attack and captured the military barracks.

Washington, Mar. 19—With the Ebert government restored in Germany it will be stronger than ever before was predicted in official circles today. The prediction was based upon unofficial advices here.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY

For Representative in Congress.

I hereby announce myself a Democratic candidate for Representative in Congress, Fourth Congressional District, Missouri subject to primary election first Tuesday in August, 1920

ROBERT I. YOUNG.
A15tf.

DEMOCRATIC NOTES

A good many Democratic women of this city and county are muchly interested in the political situation and will be found to be getting active in good time to make themselves felt in the coming campaign—Doniphan Prospect News.

"The president has violated the Constitution. He has made a treaty .... that is the abhorrence of our people. He has treated our remonstrances with pointed contempt. Louis XVI, in the meridian of his splendor and power never dared to heap such insults upon his subjects. The answers to respectful remonstrances ....sound like the words of an omnipotent director of a seraglio. He has thundered contempt upon the people with as much confidence as if he sat on the throne of Indostan."

That sounds familiar, of course, but it was not written of Woodrow Wilson It is a quotation from McMaster's History, giving a sample of the bitterness with which George Washington was attacked while president— Lexington News.

We find a lot of whining crepe wearers walking around wearing funeral shrouds for the Democratic party at the next election, and the worst part of it is they claim to be Democrats, and that's what hurts. Of course, they are not Democrats and they are putting out that Republican propaganda for the purpose of discouraging the loyal and true Democrats. But, boys, do not let the crepe wearers discourage you. The Democratic party never had a better chance than it has this year to win The Republicans never were more disrupted, never had less to offer the people never were shown up more completely in their trickery and false promises than they have been during the last eight years—Huntsville Herald

We suggest, in the interest of conservation of time, that the entire crop of presidential aspirants get together, strip off their coats, square themselves and go to it—and let the best man win. It ought to be equal to the good old days of the cock fight.—Clark Chronical.

Edward F. Goltra, Democratic National Committeeman of Missouri returned from San Francisco, where he arranged for accomodations for the Missouri delegation to the Democratic National convention, that he had engaged the second and third floors of the Plaza hotel, and that they provided ample accomodations for the 36 delegates from Missouri and members of the State Committee who would attend the convention.

Goltra also has under consideration plans for a special train to San Francisco to accomodate nearly all the Missourians who go to the convertion. He said he expected to work out a scenic tour which would enable visits to the points of the greatest interest in the west.

The Republicans coined a phrase on the Democrats and are still shouting that "Wilson promised to keep us out of war." They have made one for themselves. They promised to reduce the cost of living when they elected majorities in Senate and house. This should be heralded all over this state and the United States. After many months they have done nothing but growl, snarl and play the grouchy act. —Cassville Democrat.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Maryville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. C. McMonigal, 206 N. Main St., Maryville, says: "I suffered for years from disordered kidneys and at times the pain in my back was so bad I had to scream. I wouldn't rest well and had dizzy spells. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills I have felt better in every way. I can certainly recommend them."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER Mrs. McMonigal said: "I never hesitate to say a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills, as they have given me permanent benefit."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. McMonigal had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

FASHION BIDS FAREWELL TO "THE PERFECT THIRTY-SIX."

Chicago, March 18.—Farewell to the "perfect thirty-sixes!". Fashion designers have put the delectable creatures out of the running, at least for this season, and there is much lamentation among the sprightly models who formerly swept majestically up and down in front of the buyers.

"There ain't no such a thing as a feminine form today," wailed Gertie, one of the models. "A lady might as well be a barrel of sauer kraut as a perfect thirty-six. A classy built dame can't show the styles no more. What they need for a model is a circus freak —Rubina, the rubber lady—or something like that. She's gotta have a spaghetti spine, double-jointed and accordion pleated muscles to fit into more than one gown a year."

Gertie is right. There are two ways to follow the fashions this year. One is to follow them all the way. In the morning, milady will need a slim, waspwaist; in the afternoon she will require a few curves, and in the evening she will have to be as straight as a ramrod. As for the gowns displayed at the opening of the fashion art league today, one must be a mathematician to guess whether the forms they encase are spheres, hemispheres, parabolas or comet-like wisps of atmosphere.

JOHN W. EVERMAN AND SON ARRESTED ON FEDERAL CHARGE

The following is from the St. Joseph News-Press.

John W. Everman and his son, Forest W., well-to-do Daviess county stockmen, were arraigned before United States Commissioner John A. Duncan, Jr., last night on a charge of using the mails to defraud. A capias warrant was issued in federal court at the March term after the grand jury had returned an indictment against the stockmen. They were released on bonds of $2,000 each to appear at the September term of court. E. H. Zimmerman and R. R. D. Lacy their bondsmen.

The indictment against men charges that they used the mails to advertise pure bred Poland China hogs with the intention of filling the orders with underweight scrub stock. The indictment has sixteen counts, each containing a letter to a prospective customer lauding the values of their hogs. The prices listed in the letters ranged from $35 to $50 a head for spring and fall pigs, to be paid in advance. The letterheads on which the letters were written carried the firm name, "Ever-Stock and Poultry Farm," Gallatin, Mo.

John W. Everman is police judge at Gallatin, and is said to be a candidate for mayor. It was during an active campaign waged by Everman following his election as police judge that The Democrat at Gallatin printed a news item reporting the case of Hugh Y. Tarwater, then city clerk, said to have been charged with drunkenness. Tarwater denied the charge and sued the Democrat for libel. Two days before Christmas Wesley L. Robertson, senior editor of the Democrat was shot to death, and Tarwater is held at Gallatin for the crime.

Judge Everman is expected to be a principal witness in both the Gallatin trials in the libel suit and the murder hearing.

WESTERN MISS BORROWS

STYLES FROM THE ORIENTAL

The official attire of the wife of any mandarin is not more splendid than the rich silks, gay colors, and bright embroideries worn by the daintiest of American girls this spring. Indeed, some of the blouses of our Western misses are identical with those worn by the women of old empires. Richly jewelled hairpins are added to give taste to the coiffure.

The wadded dressing gown is China's own creation. We find them in our shops in brilliant tones or in the pastel shades. And the new figured crepes and voiles look like perpetuated love letters in Japanese script.

Flowers bloom in prodigal profusion in the thin summer fabrics, quite after oriental fashion.

Richly brocaded girdles, priced by the inch, give a decorative finish to velvet frocks.

And where did our designers pick up these quaint hat pins with heavy enameled heads? Straight from an Egyptian mummy case.

The present jade craze with its fascinating superstition originated back in the Orient, of course.

We may boast of our western civilization and pride ourselves on the beauty of our costumes, but consider, the added beauty of that straight ribbed parasol, that folded turban, that skillfully embroidered handbag.

If you see before you a strong and safe bridge leading to your goal, would you ignore it and choose some insecure and tottering structure?—

If you were offered sure aid in time of trouble would you hesitate to accept it?—

The answer is simple—you would choose what all evidence showed to be the safe way—and you would risk nothing in useless experiments.

Why then do some women risk one of their most precious possessions—their health—in trying medicines of unknown value, when everybody knows that the most successful remedy for woman's ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is more proof:

Reading, Pa.—"I had organic inflammation, pain in the side and back which were so severe that they pulled me to my knees, and I could not walk. I had an operation and still I failed, and in the eight years I suffered I had four doctors and none helped me. My mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was then in bed, and after the first bottle I could be out of bed, then I took Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and also used the Sanative Wash. I still take the medicine and am able now to do my own housework. My friends say, 'My! but you look well—what do you do?' Who is your doctor?' and there is only one answer, Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines."—Mrs. Wm. Sipyn, 240 Douglas Street, Reading, Pa.

Gainesville, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my side. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband read and I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results, and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time, and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound, and I received Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work, and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine."—Mrs. W. M. Stephens, 202 Harvey St., Gainesville, Texas.

Housekeepers Strike---

We'd be in a fine fix if the lady of the house went on strike, wouldn't we?—

But you couldn't blame her if she has to do all her work in the old hard way without any of the modern appliances.

Of all things to lighten woman's work the Electric Washer is the greatest saver of them all.

And the Maytag is the most dependable Washer for its price.

Let us show you a Maytag.

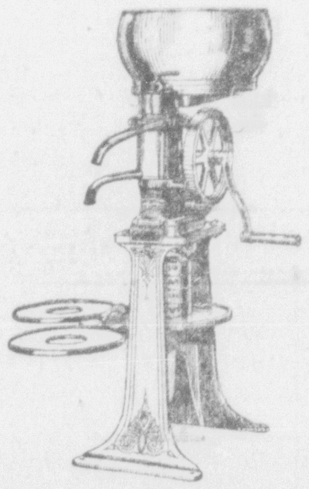
Built just as good as an incubator can be built, the Queen will give you the greatest satisfaction in large per cent hatches and strong, healthy chicks.

Warmer weather will be here soon now, and it is time to start your hatches. The value of eggs and poultry makes it imperative that you use the best possible appliances for increased production.

The Queen will add to your poultry profits.



CREAM SEPARATORS.

Effieiency in cream separation is what makes money out of milk. Trying unknown makes of separators has cost dairy farmers many a dollar. The big dairy farmers don't do it—they use the standard, time-tested machines of known reliability, such as the DeLaval and Anker-Holth.

Let us demonstrate the superiority of these machines.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Shell entertained with a small dinner party today at their home northwest of Maryville. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clint Adams and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Duncan.

Musical Program.

Mrs. C. Edwin Wells gave a delightful musical program Tuesday night at the party given by Mrs. J. R. Brink, Mrs. A. J. Cauffield and Mrs. F. H. Metzler at the Brink residence on Normal Avenue

Hall Dinner Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Sybert and children Florence Fern, Grace Rebecca and Homer, and Miss Florence Moore all of Savannah, Mo., were dinner guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hall at their country home northwest of Maryville.

Birthday Party.

Miss Ruth Bookman was given a surprise party last night at the home of her father, J. W. Bookman, on East Third street in celebration of her seventeenth birthday anniversary. The party was planned and carried out by her sister, Miss Gladys Bookman. Progressive St. Pat was an etnertaining feature of the party. The color scheme of green and white was carried out in the refreshments served. The guests included a number of her school mates who were Ruth Houchens, Thelma Craig, Dorothy Rowley, Jean Powell Alice McMurray Alice Welling, Odette Wilderman, Martha Kennedy, Margaret Kerr, Maragret Remus, Ora Mae Condon, Ruth Miller, Persis Hunt Laveta Epperson, Margaret Deitz, Justine Fraser, Mabel Raines, Evelyn Raines Marie Cloud Mattie Price Floyd Foreman, Stanley Aley, Lee Maier, Donald Williams, Robert Nicholas Perry Eads Lawrence Hunt Jesse Boatman Donald Dowell, Dean Campbell, Arthur Garrett Richard Kirby, Simeon Wright, Rolland Merrigan, Harry Price, William Geist Tom Ferris Chilton Robinson, John Costello and Ray Hull.

Celebrate Anniversary.

The program tea given by the members of the Twentieth Century club yesterday afternoon at the Elks club to observe its fourteenth anniversary, was one of the most successful social events in the history of the club. In the receiving line were Mrs. A. A. Brewer, Mrs. J. C. Allender, Mrs Ed G. Orear, Mrs. W A. Rickenbrode, and Mrs C D. Bellows, with Mrs. W. O. Garrett and Mrs. L. G. Crossan. During the assembling of the guests, Mrs. D. J. Thomas presided over a Brunswick machine. The program was opened with the extending of welcome and greeting by the president, Mrs. A. A. Brewer. In her address she told of the past, present and future of the Twentieth Century club, its benefits derived from federation and also gave in brief the accomplishments of the club in the fourteen years of its organization. Mrs. Brewer's address was followed by two vocal solos, "The Robin Sings in the Apple Tree" (MacDowell) and "When the Dew is Falling" (Schneider) by Mrs. A. F. Harvey accompanied by Mrs. A. Neil Somerville. A domestic comedy, 'How Beauty Won the Beast" was excellently presented by Mrs. F. H. Metzler and Mrs. C. C. Leeson. Four Irish musical selections were given following the comedy They were "Bendemeer Stream" and "My Wild Irish Rose" by Mrs. H. L. Raines and "A Little Bit of Heaven" and "Where the River Shannon Flows by Mrs. H. C. Todd. The feature of the afternoon was a one act comedy, "Mr. Sampson" writen by Charles Lee. Miss Grace Langan played the role of Mr. Sampson, and the parts of two maiden sisters living next door were taken by Mrs. C. C. Leeson and Mrs. F. H. Metzler. The comedy was well presented and thoroughly appreciated by the audience The stage under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Rickenbrode was attractively set. Tea was served by Mrs. Frank Cummins, Mrs. G. C. Stienmeyer, Mrs. H. R. Juvenal, Mrs. G B Holmes Jr, Miss Mary Guinn and Miss Ora Barmann. These serving maids were daintily dressed in white shamrock aprons effectively carrying out the idea of St. Patrick's day. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Ed G. Orear, Mrs. W. A. Rickenbrode, Mrs. Harry Todd, Mrs. Elmer Fraser, Mrs. W O Garrett and Mrs C. C. Leeson. About one hundred and seventy guests were present including two charter members, Mrs. Ed G. Orear, and Mrs. G. B. Holmes, Sr. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. E. W. Babb, a representative of the Ireland Industrial club, Mrs. J. J. Knabb of the Country Club, Mrs. Alfred Crater of the Patriotic club of Ravenwood, Mrs. A. Marsh of the Merry Mingler club and Mrs. George Felton of Parnell club. The other guests included the former members of the Twentieth Century club now living in Maryville and an invited guest of each present member.

St. Patrick's Day Party.

The Young Peoples department of the Methodist church, South entertained last night with a St. Patrick's day party at the church. The young folks were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. T. H. Leet and Mrs. R. M. Barry. Decorations of shamrocks an dothers suggestive of Ireland were used. A man and his wife just arrived from Ireland (Ray Maul and William Devore) created much merriment. Various Irish games were played and enjoyed by the forty guests present. Refreshments were served near the close of the entertainment.

Miss Alma Tabler returned home Tuesday night after spending the past week in Kansas City with her sister, Mrs. A. O. Mason.

CHALMERS

A car for those who have an eye for beauty and an ear for rhythm

TO stand and look at a new Chalmers is to admire it. For it has a grace of line, an elegance of finish, a care for little details that compel your attention.

The new coach is low in appearance, and therein lies the secret of its beauty.

You can sit in the car and feel yourself at rare ease.

Start the engine, turn loose the power stream, accelerate it, play with it as you will, you cannot help but detect a smoothness, a perfect rhythm that is pleasing to the ear.

Quality First

There are no engine throbs, no vibration, no apparent effort. Hot Spot and Ram's-horn prevent them. Those two products of master intellects refind the gasoline, "digest" it, "break up the lumps," and make it easy for that magnificent engine to supply that rhythm of power which so quickly denotes a Chalmers.

Drive this car once, and you, too, will say Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

—and we couldn't stay in business here very long if what we say is not true.

Think this over a minute—the Du Pont people have been in business since 1802, over 117 years, and the name has never been associated with anything but the biggest and best.

Is Man a Monkey?

This much discussed question can always be answered if he has a fire and does not have his property well covered with insurance.

How foolish is the universal answer when one burns out without any insurance.

We can remember when if a man had $3,000.00 he was considered rich.

The average insurance policy did not exceed $1,000.00 then. But things are different, now $5,000.00 policies are written every day. Have you increased your insurance in proportion to the increased value of your property? or are you carrying the same old policy that was written on it years ago?

Don't wait till you burn out and then be classed as a foolish monkey. Increase your insurance now and remember that we write all kinds of Fire, Lightning and Tornado Insurance on all kinds of property.
